

Obituaries

Aaron Allen

1920 – 87 years, pioneer resident of Palermo, survived by wife Emma of North Volney, and son Ernest, daughters, Clair Prior, Pearl Salsbury of Palermo, sister Mrs. Sylvester Wright of Palermo.

Edith C Arnold

1986 – aged 84, born Palermo, widow of Wayne Arnold (died 1961)

Mrs. James Atkinson

July 21 – Mrs. James Atkinson died very suddenly at her home in Palermo on Wednesday morning last. She was apparently as well as usual in the morning when she arose, did her household work and went to the barn to assist her husband in his haying. She fell in the barn and died there, only living a short time. She leaves four daughters and her husband. The funeral was held on Saturday at her home, burial was at North Volney

John C Atwater

1945 – survived by wife Viola Hills Atwater, daughter Mrs. George Turin of PA and son John of CT

Enos Austin

2/4/1893 – aged 76 years, sons Levi and Frezerne

George S Babcock

1902 – born in Palermo, aged 77

William Ball

1928 – born Palermo, aged 69, survived by wife Jennie Hall, son Raymond, buried Roosevelt Cemetery.

Henry Barnes

1915 – aged 77 years, died of apopiary, buried Upsons Corners Cemetery.

Norman Barry

1974 – Norman C. Barry, 73, town of Palermo, died May 13, while on a fishing trip at Lake Lacducerf, Ontario, Canada. Born in Stroudsburg, PA, he had resided in Palermo 52 years. He was a former custodian for the Mexico school system, a member of Patherfinder Fish and Game club, and the Palermo Volunteer Fire Departement. Surviving are a brother Foster of Fulton, and several nieces and nephews. Burial at Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Clarence Barta

8/1917 – age 6, son of Mr and Mrs. G H Barto, auto accident.

Edward Bartlett

1888 – aged 24, died of typhoid pneumonia, buried Vermillion

Mrs. Dr. A K Beckwith

1875 – aged 73, wife of Dr. Beckwith (he died 1856), married 1831, came to Palermo in 1833.

Rev. Reuben Benton

6/14/1883 – aged 60 (?), kidney complaint

Francis H Bidwell

1977 – aged 66 years, born at Prospect, was self employed gunsmith, survived by wife Mary C Bidwell, son Paul of Pennellville, brothers Leo and Ernest of Palermo, sisters Ellen Youmans of Palermo and Pauline Hopkinson of Fulton, buried at Roosevelt Cemetery.

William Blackman

4/10/1907 – died of appendicitis, buried Coit Cemetery

Phila Blake

1890 – aged 64 years, daughter of Permela Blake (died 1886)

Charles Booth

1980 – Charles J Booth, 88, of R D 4 Fulton died at Lee Memorial Hospital after being stricken at home.

Born in Gilford, he live for the past 35 years in Palermo. He was a retired farmer and member of Granite Grange and Palermo Senior Citizens.

Surviving are three daughters Mrs. Edith Seeland of Cicero, Mrs. Pearl Jones of Palermo and Mrs. Almeda Dillabough of Scriba. Burial at Evergreen cemetery, Oswego.

Hazel Booth

1976 – aged 73 years. Born in Oswego, lived in Palermo 30 years. Attended Oswego Normal and Alfred University. Was a member of Palermo United Methodist Church and County Home Extension. Survived by husband Charles J Booth, daughters Edith Suland of Cicero, Pearl Jones of Palermo, Almeda Dillabough. Burial at Otego Cemetery.
Charles H Bourlier

Dec. 8, 1927 – Charles H. Bourlier, 69, native of Oswego County died at his home in Pennellville after a short illness of pneumonia.

Mr. Bourlier was born April 17, 1858, in Palermo. He was a cheese maker at the factories in Gilberts Mills and Colosse. Moved to Pennellville about eight years ago. Survived by his wife, Mrs. Ida Bourlier, one son Adrian of Gilberts Mills, two brothers Frank of Fulton and George of Michigan, two sisters Mrs. Mary Wheeler of Central Square and Mrs. Sarah Conrad of Pennellville. Burial in Pennellville cemetery.

Floyd L Bourlier

Feb. 16, 1972 – Floyd L Bourlier, 80, of 811 Emery St., Fulton, died at an area nursing home. He was born in Palermo and a life long resident. He was employed by the American Woolen Works and the State Highway Department. Surviving are an aunt, Mrs. Mae Smith of Central Square and three cousins. Burial at Upsons Corners cemetery.

Henry Bourlier

Feb. 17, 1916 – Henry Bourlier, aged 69 years, passed away at his home on Sunday, Feb. 13. He had been ill for some time. He conducted a general store at East Palermo for more than 40 years. He is survived by his widow, one daughter Mrs. George Smith of Central Square, two grandchildren, Floyd Bourlier of Fulton and Thomas Smith of Central Square, four brothers and two sisters, George Bourlier of Chaffee, NY, Charles Bourlier of Caughdenoy, Frank Bourlier of Euclid, Peter Bourlier and Mrs Mary Wheeler of Central Square, Mrs. Sarah Conrad of Pennellville. Burial at Upsons Corners Cemetery, Rev. E C Love officiating.

Peter Bourlier

June 25, 1916 – Peter Bourlier, aged 56 years, was killed at Swader's crossing yesterday. He was driving an automobile to his home from Mallory when he collided with the engine of the Club Train from the Thosand Islands to Syracuse. He was thrown some distance and killed instantly. Mr. Bourlier had a cheese factory at Mallory. He leaves a widow and two children.

Peter C Bourlier

Apr. 27, 1905 – Born in southern France, Sept. 18, 1823 and passed away April 24th, in the 82nd year of age. Mr. Bourlier came to America in 1835 and settled wit his parents near Hastings. In August, 1845 he married Mary Racine, who died Sept. 11, 1879. There were seven children, all of whom survive: Henry of Palermo, George of Gilbert Mills, Mrs. Mary Wheeler of Palermo, Mrs. Sarah Conrad of Gilbert Mills, Charles of Caughdenoy, Peter of Central Square and Frank of Euclid. In June, 1881, he married Miss Carrie Youles, who survives him and they had one son, Bert R of this village. Mr. Bourlier died from the two recent strokes of paralysis. He was a member of the Grange. Rev. R.T Cooper officiating, burial in Phoenix Rural cemetery.

Millard F Bourlier

Apr. 1912 – Aged 26 years, son of Charles Bourlier. Married in 1908 to Miss Bertha Barker of South Butler, Wayne county. Leaves a 2 ½ son Burdette. Survived by his parents, two brothers Vern of West Monroe and Adrian of Caughdenoy. The burial was in Pennellville

Schuyler Bourlier

East Palermo, Mar. 30, 1903 – Schuyler Bourlier died at his home March 20th, after one week's illness of pneumonia, aged 35 years. He was the eldest son of Henry and Helen Bourlier. He was married in February 1891 to Emma Tudo of this place. One son, Floyd, was born after which she died two years after their marriage. Two years ago he married Ethel Ingersoll of this place, who now survives him. Also leaves one son, father and mother, one sister and large circle of friends. Rev. W H Church officiated, burial at Upsons Corners.

Mary A Bradford

1902 – born Palermo April 11, 1846, married John Bradford

Catherine Bradley

1909 – aged 76, wife of Francis, died of heart attack.

Francis Brady

1914 – lived in Vermillion, aged 89, was a stone mason, buried Mexico Cemetery.

David L Brown

1919 - Died at his home on East Broadway, Fulton, Jan. 27th, David L Brown, aged 92 years. Survived by one daughter, Mrs May E Torrey of Brooklyn, three sons, Earl S Brown of this city, Schuyler C Brown of Oswego and D.M. Brown of Fergus Falls, MN. Funeral services will be held at his home Thursday afternoon, interment at Mt. Adnah. Mr. Brown was in poor health for some time but was able to be about the house. On Saturday morning he fell down the stairs at his home and sustained a fractured nose, a severe cut on his forehead and a great shock to his enfeebled condition. He failed to recover and passed away on Monday.

The deceased was born in Deerfield, this state. He removed to the town of Palermo and for over forty years was a prosperous farmer. He was also prominent in the affairs of the town, serving several terms as justice of the peace.

He was a member of the M.E. church of Palermo. He was a great reader of high grade books and the newspapers. He was a member of the Borrowed Time club.

Earl S Brown

1921 – age 57, born Palermo, died of pneumonia, buried Mt. Adnah, son of David L Brown

Mrs. T. Burgess

1921 – aged 80, survived by daughter Mrs. Alvin Maine of East Palermo, buried Upsons Corners Cemetery.

Edna Burrows

Oct. 15, 1905 – Edna Burrows, the nine year old daughter of Mr and Mrs Willis Burrows died after a brief illness. Her death was a shock to the community to whom she was a general favorite. She is mourned by her parents and two sisters. Funeral services were held at the home of her parents, Rev Schorge of Pennellville officiating. Interment at Upsons Corners Cemetery

Willis H Burrows

Mexico, Nov. 26, 1936 –

Willis M Burrows, 70, died at his home in Peet's Corners, town of Palermo Tuesday after a brief illness of pneumonia. He was born in Hastings, April 25, 1864, to the late Abraham and Caroline Fellows Burrows.

Mr. Burrows had been a prosperous farmer and a resident of Peet's Corners the past 35 years. He was a member of the Happy Thought Grange and the Pathfinder Lodge, I.O.O. F, both of Peet's Corners. He had served Pathfinder Lodge as treasurer the past 20 years. He is survived by his wife, Katherine Banning Burrows; two daughters, Mrs. George Henderson, Miss Edith Burrows and one granddaughter, Miss Hilda Henderson, all of Peet's Corners. One sister Mrs. Emery, Colosse and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held at his home Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. conducted by Rev. Fred Harris, pastor of Peet's Corners church. Burial will be in Upson's Corners Cemetery.

Those who will act as bearers are six nephews of Mr. Burrows: Schuyler Applin, Bernard Applin, Syracuse, Sanford Clemons, Cicero, Bennett Vollmer, Collome, Wesley Vollmer, Cicero, Joseph Wentworth, North Syracuse.

Adelbert Burton

1923 – aged 58 (68?)

Agnes "Nessie" Burton

1981 – aged 79, born Scotland, wife of Alvah, buried Vermillion Cemetery

Arthur W Burton

1980 – aged 76, Roosevelt Cemetery

Fannie S Burton

1920 – 79 years, survived by sons Fred, Melvin, Charles, Eugene, Accy, Adelbert, Irwin, Asa, daughters Nina Burton, Flossie Dodge, Ellen Smith, brother Charles Goodfellow, sister Eliza Feckelstaller, resident for 50 years, Volney Congregation Church member

Rosa J Burton

1962 – aged 84, died at home of her son Glenn in Volney Center after short illness. She was born in Palermo. She is survived by sons Glenn of Volney, Elmer, Alvah and daughter Cecil Mattinon of Palermo, sister Lillian Bartlett, 10 grandchildren

Charlotte Calkins

1919 – aged 74, widow of Henry Calkins, survived by stepmother Mrs. Eliza White of Palermo, sisters Mrs. Rose Baker of Baldwinsville and Mrs. Oron Dunsmoore of Palermo, a brother Walter White of Fulton and William of Oswego.

Joseph Calkins

1897 – 83 years

Amanda Carney

1928 – Mrs Amanda Carney, 81, died at her home Palermo Center after an illness of ten years. She was born at Cooperstown May 26, 1946 the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hayes. The family moved to Palermo when she was six years old. She is survived by one son, Emmett Carney of Cazenovia, Mrs. Sarah Kenyon and Mrs. Martha Vincent of Palermo, Mrs. Ida Hime of Gilbert Mills, and Mrs. Dora Cotton of Fulton, two brothers, William of Herkimer and Charles of Johnstown. Rev. A Day Rich officiating, Palermo Center Cemetery.

Thomas Carney

1915 – born Palermo, buried Palermo Center

Willis Gaylord Chaffee

1918 – aged 81, born Palermo 11/4/1838, married Martha Dickinson of Bernards Bay

Francis J Chapman

1976 – aged 68, born in Schroepfel, wife Helen Peacock, son Francis W Chapman, daughters Mrs. Jane Tarkowski of Cato, Mrs. Betty Jane Socie of Pennellville, Mrs.

Gloria Jean Raymond of Palermo, Mrs. Audrey Turo of Baldwinsville, brothers William of Syracuse, Jesse of El Paso, TX, sister Helen Jewell of Amboy, burial at Vermillion Cemetery.

Adelbert B Chappelle

Fulton, Nov. 17, 1933 –
PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY WHILE WORKING IN BARN.

Adelbert Bryon Chappell, 73, was found dead of a heart attack at the barn of his farm on the Palermo road, R.D. 4 early Friday morning. Dr. L.D. Pulsifer of Mexico was called and battled snowdrifts on the road to reach the home. He found Mr. Chappelle had been dead some time however. A few hours later the county snowplow completed breaking open the road to the home.

Mr. Chappelle's wife, Mrs. Jane A Chappelle, stated he husband had been in usual health and arose early as usual to do the work. When Harold Burton, a driver who picks up milk for a local factory on that route reached the Chappelle barn, he found the milk was not set out as usual and entered the barn to investigate. He found Mr. Chappelle's body on the barn floor and notified the wife and neighbors.

Mr. Chappelle had operated the Palermo farm 13 years. He was a member of the Adams Odd Fellows Lodge and Granite Grange, Palermo. Besides his wife, he survived by four daughters, Mrs. Helen Crump, Pitttsford, NY, Miss Margarite Chapelle, Rochester, Mrs. A. E Maines, Medina, Mrs. E R Rummler, Rochester; one brother, Ray Chappelle, Port Byron.

Lila Chubb

1980 – aged 82, Upsons Corners Cemetery

Clarence Clark

BODY OF MISSING FARMER IS FOUND NEAR SON'S HOME

The body of Clarence Clark, 62, Palermo farmer who had been missing from his home the past 11 days during which time he had been the object of a state wide search was found Sunday morning beside a creek in the northeast corner of the farm of his son Loren. It is believed he was stricken with apoplexy and died soon after leaving his home. Boyce Clark, 11, son of Loren and grandson of the elder Clark discovered the body while going after cattle. Loren notified Sgt. Lawrence Fox of the State Police headquarters in Phoenix. Dr. Leigh A Simpson of Fulton was called and conducted a post mortem examination. Death was attributed to apoplectic stroke and possible heart attack. He is survived by his wife Minnie Clark, two sons, Loren and Lawrence, his father Goal Clark, all of Palermo. One daughter, Mrs. Emmett Ure of Fulton, one brother Cady Clark of Pennellville.

Mr. Clark was a native of Palermo. Burial was in Roosevelt Cemetery.

Maude Clark

1933 – Maude Snyder Clark, aged 55 years, widow of Fred Clark. She is survived by two daughters, Mabel Rink and Hazel Sutton of Palermo, one son Howard of Fulton and four brothers. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery.

William Dewey Clifford

Oct. 31, 1894 – William Clifford, of heart trouble and rheumatism, formerly of South Scriba.

Freda L Coe

1990 – aged 75, born Palermo, buried Mt. Adnah

Ida L. Collins

March 18, 1928 – died at her home near Gilberts Mills, March 18th, Mrs. Ida L. Collins, wife of Horace Collins, aged 65 years. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs Lee Loomis of Palermo, and Mrs. Ena Baldwin of Syracuse and one son, Harlan D Collins of this city. Funeral services were held at her late home Tuesday, interment in Mt. Adnah.

The deceased was born in Silver Creek. She had resided in Palermo for the past 43 years and was prominent in all church, W C T U and social activities of the town in which she lived.

Helen M Curtiss

Mrs. Helen M Curtis, 69, of Fulton, town of Palermo, died March 13 at a local nursing home. She was born in Winston-Salem, NC and resided in Palermo for 35 years. She attended Palermo United Methodist Church, a member of Palermo Grange and Elizabeth Chapter 104, Order of the Eastern Star. Surviving are a brother, Stamey Vest of Baltimore, MD and a foster daughter Mrs. Barbara Sanders of Deland, FL. Burial was in Mt. Adnah cemetery.

Carl Darnell

1976 – born Kansas

Grace M Dines

Died at her home in Ilion, April 25th, Mrs. Grace M Dines, aged 65 years. She is survived by three cousins, Mrs. George Grandjean of this city and Mrs Hazel Busher and Mrs. Olive Lewis, both of the west river road; a stepson Harris Dines of Albany and an aunt, Mrs. Sarah Dines, Fulton.

Funeral services were held from the Springer undertaking rooms Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Charles Bollinger officiating; interment in Mt. Adnah.

The deceased was a native of the town of Palermo. She resided here for many years and moved to Ilion about a year ago. She was the widow of Calvin Dines.

Frank H Dolbear

1937 – Frank H Dolbear, a life resident of Palermo, died April 14th after a lingering illness at the home of his son, Fred L Dolbear of Syracuse. He was born January 18, 1819 at Palermo Center, the son of Timothy and Emily Dolbear, pioneer settlers of Palermo. He was educated at Palermo Center and the Falley Seminary in Fulton. Mr. Dolbear was well known in local band circles, having started his musical career at Palermo Center with the Chaffee Band for about 45 years.

As a young man, he was employed as a cheese maker. Later he worked as a salesman for F.G. VanWagner of Fulton and International Harvester. For the past 15 years he sold subscriptions to the American Agriculturist and the Rural New Yorker. He was a member of the Neawantha Lodge #254 IOOF of Fulton, an active Grange member. He is survived by his wife, Nellie Jennings Dolbear, one son Fred L and brothers Martin of Phoenix and Charles and Fred of Fulton.

Rev. Ira Owens officiated, burial was in Palermo Center. Bearers were Frank Jennings, Charles Foster, Fred Scudder, Lee Loomis, John Mayne and Leo Green.

Millie Dolbear

1896 – aged 20 years, died of consumption, wife of Charles Dolbear

Benjamin Duel

1903 – aged 73, burial at Coit Cemetery

William Eggleston

1897 – born Palermo, aged 76

Clyde Fineout

1987 – aged 79, born Constableville

Fairfield Flint

1933 – aged 77 years, born in Palermo, survived by son Robert

John Frawley

1929 – aged 54 years

Mary Getman

1893 – aged 92, wife of Daniel.

Lulu E Kelsey Gilman

1968 – Aged 94, Lula E Kelsey Gilman, widow of the late Leon Gilman, who died in 1943, died at Evergreen Nursing Home, Williamstown. She was born Jan 17, 1874 in New Haven. She taught school for several years at Palermo and Mt. Pleasant. She resided in Palermo most of her life. Mrs. Gilman was a 61 year member of Granite Grange. She is survived by her nephew Leo T Green. Burial was in Palermo Center cemetery.

Philo Gilson

3/21/1906 – aged 75 years of paralysis, born Palermo, buried Palermo Center.

Mary Goodfellow

1920 - Died at her home near Bristol Hill, town of Volney, April 25th, Mrs. Mary Goodfellow, aged 71 years. She is survived by her husband Charles Goodfellow of Volney, one daughter, Mrs. Florence Darling of this city; three sons, J. Wesley of Palermo, Raymond C of East Orange, NJ, Maynard D of this city; one brother Harvey Wise of Volney and three sisters, Mrs. Aaron Allen of Palermo, Mrs. Charles Foster and Mrs. Amelia Corey of Schroepfel.
Paul Goodfellow

1981 - Paul E Goodfellow, 49, of Fulton died at Lee Memorial on May 12. He was born in Palermo and was a life of the area. He was a veteran of the Korean Conflict. He is survived by one son, Paul E Goodfellow of Fulton, daughter Mrs. Debbie Lee Hanson of Fulton, his parents Mr and Mrs. Allan Goodfellow, one brother Bruce of Fulton. Burial was in Volney Center Cemetery.

Thomas Gorman

1918 - aged 54, died of cancer, buried Colosse Cemetery.

Alanson Graves

1894

Granville Graves

1952 - aged 73, born 1879 in Palermo, wife Mina Sherman Graves

Milton C Graves

1943 - aged 94, son of Cyrus and Mary Hills Graves, wife Maria Hart

Clarence Groff

1918 - aged 27 years, born in Palermo, son of John, Palermo Center Cemetery.

Eliza Graves

1912 - Eliza Graves, 93, died at the home of her daughter Mrs. Fred Farmer on June 16th. Funeral services were held from the home, burial at Clifford. Rev. J. Gifford officiated. She was the widow of Alanson Graves

Herbert R Graves

1944 – 82 years, son of Milton and Maria Hart Graves, wife Lucy DuBois, born Palermo

Herbert A Graves

1947 – aged 45, survived by wife Hattie Loomis Graves, daughter Bonnie, sons Clyde, Duane, Keith, brother Richard Graves
Clarence Green

1936 – 63 years, wife Lena, son Leo Green

Lena Green

1953 – passed away at her home in Palermo June 23rd after a long illness. Survived by a son, Leo Green, sister Mrs. Lulu Gilman and two grandsons.

Arline E Guyle

1986 – born Hurleyville, aged 78

Gerald Hagan

1967 – born in Palermo, aged 66 years, wife Gladys Blume, sisters Lettie Rice of Syracuse, Great Rice of Fulton, brothers Paul and William of Syracuse, Fred of Liverpool.

Oscar Hagan

1893 – aged 37 of Brights Disease, Upsons Corners Cemetery.

Elizabeth Hancock

1. - adopted daughter of Rev. William Peck, married John Mason, buried Sayles Corners.

Francis Hanly

1902 – aged 86

Edward Harrington

1931 – Edward D Harrington, 25, died suddenly at his home in Palermo Monday morning, suffering a heart attack. He had no been ill recently and had been preparing to go to work as usual Monday morning.

Mr. Harrington was born in Oriskany March 31, 1905, son of Burt and Veronica Thomas Harrington. For the past several years he had been in the employ of the Oswego County Independent Telephone Company. He was a member of St. Mary's church in Camden and Granite Grange #680 in Palermo.

He is survived by his widow, Anna Dyo Harrington; one son, Edward; his parents; one brother William of Rome and two sisters, Mrs. A A Bowman of Herkimer and Mrs. Winslowe Burke of Rome.

Funeral services will be held at the home in Palermo, Rev. W D Walker, pastor of the Congregational Church of Bristol Hill officiating. Burial will be in St. Anne's cemetery, Mexico.

Lloyd F Hart

1906 – 3 years, son of Llwellyn Hart

Cora Havens

Aug. 29, 1882 – Last Wednesday, Cora, wife of William Havens of Palermo, died suddenly at her fathers home in Vermillion. The funeral was held Sunday and as the procession was starting for the church, coroner Hall arrived and put a stop to the proceedings. A strong protest was entered by the husband and friends but the coroner was decided and the body was taken back to the home. A post mortem examination was held by Drs. Pardee and Loomis and the funeral was allowed to proceed. Coroner Hall summoned a jury here yesterday afternoon which after hearing the evidence rendered the following verdict: that the deceased came to her death from an attempt to produce and abortion in the presence of Mrs. Kate Belchamber, with or without her assistance.

Darusba Henderson

5/18/1912 – 74 years, husband Joseph, Upsons Corners Cemetery

George Henderson

1975 - George H. Henderson, 81, of Co. Rt. 18, died Thursday at Oswego Hospital after a long illness.

Born in Syracuse, he lived most of his life in East Palermo, Mr. Henderson was a dairy farmer until his retirement two years ago. He attended the Palermo United Methodist church and was a 60 year member of Granite Grange, Palermo. He was a member of the Central Square Senior Citizens club. He is survived by his wife, Inez Burrows Henderson, daughter Mrs. Hilda Ladd of Cicero, a brother Roy, two sisters Mrs. Bruce Nellis of Hastings and Mrs. Leeta Wellwood of Oswego, two grandchildren.

George Hicks

1894 – aged 88 years

Abigail Hills

1909 – aged 88, born in Palermo, widow of John (?), survived by sons George and Earl of Palermo, Jay of MN, daughters Alice Hills of Palermo, Cora Salbury of Palermo, Ellen Salsbury of Fulton.

George Franklin Hills

1929 – aged 82 years, son of John and Abigail Whitehead Hills
lls

12/28/1900 – died of typhoid fever, buried Mt. Adnah.

John Hills

1898 – Mr. John Hills, of Palermo, was born Dec 27, 1818 in the parish of Egerton, the county of Kent, England and died February 4, 1896. He emigrated to America with his father (a Baptist clergyman) in 1827 in the ninth year of his age. After a voyage of about 30 days they arrived in New York and soon after the removed to Palermo, then a part of Volney and settled on the farm on which he remained seventy years and which is still occupied by his family. He was united in marriage with Miss Abigail Whitehead September 7, 1845. To them were born eight children, six of whom with the aged mother survive him. He leaves one brother William of Fulton, too aged and feeble to attend the funeral. He is the last survivor of the family. Burial was in Mt. Adnah.

Myron Hills

1888 – aged 70

John J Hollenbeck

1928 – John J Hollenbeck, 74, a lifelong resident of Palermo died at home in Palermo Center June 5th after an illness of several weeks. He was born April 11, 1854 in the town of Palermo the son of David and Sarah Ann Chapel Hollenbeck. On July 5, 1878 he was united in marriage with Miss Nellie Jennings, who with two sons Bert of Palermo and Herman of Clifford, and two daughters, Mrs. Lena (Glenn) Rowe and Mrs Anna (Lawrence) Ellis of Galeville survive. Also 11 grandchildren. One brother Willis J Hollenbeck of Phoenix. Funeral services were held from the home in Palermo Center, Rev. A Day Rich officiating. Burial in Mt. Adnah. Bearers were G D Trimble, Frank Dolbear, Minot Tooley, Arthur Loomis.

Lydia Crannell Hollenbeck

Nov. 18, 1940 – Lydia Crannell Hollenbeck, 80 years of age, died in Vermillion. She is survived by her husband, Edward Hollenbeck, a stepson William Soper of New Haven and a brother Floyd Crannell of Mexico. Rev. Luther Ridgeway officiated, burial was in Vermillion Cemetery. She was a native of Palermo, the daughter of Carme and Margaret Loomis Craannell.

Daniel Holmes

1885 – aged 74

Mrs. Conian Honek

1894 – of East Palermo, died of paralysis at daughters home, Mrs. George Bradford

Esther Elinor Hough

d. May 8, 1957, wife of William W. Hough.

William W. Hough

3/23/68 – William W. Hough, 81 of Fulton, RD 4, Town of Palermo, died Saturday at his home. Born in Prescott, Ont., Mr. Hough had lived in this area 30 years. He was a retired farmer and a member of the Grange. He was a communicant of the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Surviving are a son, William J. Hough of Fulton RD 4, six grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Will Glasgow and Mrs. Adlen Throop both of Prescott. Services will be at Young and Son Funeral Home. Spring burial in Marcellus Cemetery.

Myrtle Howard

1903 – wife of Elbert Howard, died of pneumonia

Alonson B Ingersoll

1901 – Alonson B Ingersoll was born in Chenenago County in November 1824 and died March 20, 1901, aged 79 years. When five years old, he moved to Albion. In 1834 he came to Sandy Creek, this county and lived there until 1848 and in 1849 he came to Palermo. For several years Mr. Ingersoll conducted a carriage and blacksmith shop at Palermo Center. Rev. H.F. Snow conducted the funeral, burial was at Palermo Center.

Nellie Ingersoll

1901 – Nellie, wife of Alonson B Ingersoll, was born in Scriba, October 27th 1858 and departed this life March 25, 1901, aged 46 years. She was married to Alonson Ingersoll August 12th 1880. To this union were born four children. One son Eben and three daughters, Mrs. Ethel Bourlier, Mrs. Frank Suttons, and Flossie, age ten. The daughter, Mrs. Bourlier, not only buried her father on the Tuesday before but buried her husband Schulyer on the Thursday following, making three bereavements inside a week. Rev. H. F. Snow, assisted by Rev. W. H. Church, burial in Palermo Center.

Jennie Jackson

1917 – chaplain of Pomona Grange

Beattie Hall Jennings

1947 – 86 years, widow of Frank H Jennings, survived by daughters Mrs. Harlan Collins of Fulton, Mrs. John Mayne of Palermo, 6 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Eliphlaet Jennings

1896 – died of Brights Disease, survived by daughter Mrs. Arthur Loomis

Eliza Jennings

1892 – aged 89, at home of daughter Mrs. Henry Kelsey, burial at Palermo Center, was married 67 years, last survivor of 7 brothers and sisters, came to Palermo at age 5.

Hiram Jennings

8/29/1892 – aged 89 years, was keeper of the hotel for many years. Buried at Palermo Center. Survived by wife and one son.

Oliver Jennings

7/28/1885 – 85 years

Olivia P Jennings

1891 – aged 67 years

Orville Jennings

8/6/1920 – aged 78 years, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Jennie Fones, survived by her daughter and brothers William and George of Palermo, sister Mrs. Adelbert Smith of Palermo. Burial was at Mt. Adnah. Mr. Jennings was a Capt. in the Civil War, Co.E, 24th Reg. of Volney, enlisting in 1861. He was mustered out on May 29, 1863.

Polly Jennings

1894 – aged 89

Rosella Jackson Jennings

4/20/1900 – aged 68, wife of W A Jennings, Palermo Center Cemetery.

Frederick B Johnston

Palermo, Jan. 11, 1904- Frederick B. Johnston died in his home at Palermo after a long and painful illness, age 61 years. Mr. Johnston was a veteran of the Civil War, being a member of the 81st Regiment and was wounded at Fair Oaks May 31, 1862. He was born in Oneida County but spent most of his life in Palermo and Volney. He was a kind and obliging neighbor and will be missed. He leaves a widow and one son, Clarence Johnston of Volney and two daughters; Mrs. Luella Wright, North Scriba and Mrs. Mamie Wright, Palermo. Interment in New Haven.

William C Jones

1946 – William C Jones, former school teacher, took his own life at his home on the Island Road, Palermo by shooting himself with a 12-gauge shotgun. He placed the gun against the safe and pulled the trigger, the shot entering his head. He had been employed for many years as a school teacher in Palermo, but had been despondent over recent illness. He is survived by his wife, Mabel Jones, daughter Priscilla Jones, sons Francis, Robert and Donald, all of Palermo. Services were from the home, Rev. F Carter officiating, burial in Vermillion.

Ella Keller

1893 – aged 26 of consumption, daughter of John Keller, buried at Sayles Corners Cemetery

Harriet Keller

1901 – died aged 74 of paralysis, wife of Madison, burial at Upsons Corners

John Keller

1883 – of shock

Josephine Keller

Parish, 19 - Mrs. Josephine Keller, 80, of Upson's Corners, Palermo, died at her home Saturday after a short illness. She was the widow of Jullian Keller.

Born in Central Square, Mrs. Keller was a resident of Palermo 50 years. She was a member of Happy Thought Grange, Peet's Corners.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs Harry Riley of Parish and Mrs. Marion S Thiebeau of Kensington, MD; a son, Bert Keller of Central Square; a brother, James Thiebeau of New Port Richey, FL

Services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the home of her son, Bert Keller, the Rev Charles Ouder Kirk officiating. Burial will be in Pleasant Lawn Cemetery, Parish. Friends may call at their convenience Monday at the home of her son.

Sophia Keller

9/30/1888 – aged 69 years, lived East Palermo, survived by son A E Keller of Oswego Falls, burial at Palermo Center

Kate Jennings Kelsey

1929 - Mrs. Kelsey was stricken at her home on Thursday and died on Saturday, July 6th aged 80. She was a charter member of the Granite Grange and a member of the Home Bureau. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Leon Gilman and Mrs. Clarence Green, one grandson, Leo Green. Burial in Palermo Center Cemetery.

William A Kelsey

1933 – Services for William A Kelsey, 75, former guide at Loon Lake, who died at his home in Palermo Center Sunday night were held at the home of his niece, Mrs. Leon Gilman. Rev. Ray Wooten officiating, burial in New Haven. Mr. Kelsey was born in the town of New Haven June 27, 1857 the son of William and Almira Hadcock Kelsey. He was a brick mason by trade and for 25 years was a guide at Loon Lake. He was a member of Pathfinder Lodge #311 IOOF and of Palermo Granite Grange. Surviving are three nephews, Fred Hollenbeck of Fulton, Henry T Hollenbeck of Syracuse, William Coe of Watertown, and two nieces, Mrs. Gilman and Mrs. Clarence Green of Palermo.

Warner Kenyon

1903 – aged 73, Coit Cemetery

Isabelle Kimball

d. 1899 widow of Charles Kimball, 84 years, buried Palermo Center

Harrison Kloch

1883 – aged 44

Emily Lansing

1888 – daughter of F W Lansing, burial at Clifford

Noble Lansing

Mexico, Aug. 4, 1933 –

Noble Lansing, son of Fitch and Jane Austin Lansing, died in Binghamton Thursday. He was 68 and born in Palermo where the greater part of his life was spent in farming. Surviving are two cousins, Fred Eaton, Detroit, MI and Frank Eaton, Los Angeles, CA and one second cousin, Mrs J E Unger, York, PA formerly Miss Edith Lansing Ure who at present is here and will attend the funeral.

Ruby E Larrabee

Mrs. Ruby E. Larrabee, wife of Ernest M. Larrabee of Fulton died at Lee Memorial Hospital. A life resident of this area, Mrs. Larrabee was a member of State Street Methodist Church. Surviving are her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Bart Baker and Miss Susan Crouch, both of Fulton; two sons, Spec. 4-C Milton T. Larrabee, stationed with the Army at Seneca Air Depot and Terry Larrabee of Fulton; four grandchildren, three sisters, Mrs. Locefa Perkins of Fulton, Mrs. Lucy Backman of Fulton, Mrs. Bernice West of Fulton, one brother, John Perkins of Rochester.

Lillian Hogle Leach

1967 – Mrs Lillian Hogle Leach, 78, of Palermo, died at the Dublin Rest Home in Hannibal following a long illness. She was a resident of Palermo the past 50 years and was a member of Granite Grange and the Home Bureau. Survived by two sisters, Mrs. Guy Collings of Liverpool and Mrs. Elmer Green of Phoenix, one brother Vivian Hogle of Colton, NY. Burial in Mt. Adnah Cemetery.

Ella LaVeck

1962 – Mrs. Ella LaVeck, 72, widow of George LaVeck of Clay died April 13 in St. Joseph's Hospital after a long illness. She was born in Ira and resided in Clay for the past 3 years. She had previously resided in Palermo for many years. She was employed by the State Theater in Fulton. Surviving are four daughters; Mrs. James Thompson of Palermo, Mrs. Roger Battles of Hannibal, Mrs. Arthur Richardson of Phoenix, and Mrs. Robert Truax of Cicero, a son Richard of Cicero, two sisters Mrs. Richard Zierke, Detroit, MI and Mrs. Harley Durfey of Fulton. Burial was at Mt. Adnah Cemetery.

Rev. Oliver Leavett

Apr. 3, 1837 – aged 55, Oliver Leavett, native of Rupert, Vt., graduate of Dartmouth College about 1805, minister for 30 years.

Albert E Lindsley

1941 – aged 76 years, survived by daughters Eunice Cook of Baldwinville, Florence Becker of Palermo, Jennie Lindsley of Fulton, Nellie Cooke of Syracuse and Edith Arnold of Fulton. Sons Glen of Marcellus, Alfred of Palermo and Henry of Granby.

Charles Lindsley

1900 – at the Vermillion Hotel, aged 72 years, paralysis of the heart

Claude E Lindsley

1984 – aged 95, second wife Lucille Coventry Loomis, buried Mt. Adnah

Edward Lindsley

1. age 62, blacksmith,

Buried Mexico Cemetery.

Arthur H Loomis

Mexico, Aug. 4, 1933 –

Many relatives and friends attended the funeral of Arthur H Loomis Thursday afternoon at the home of his son, Lee C Loomis. Rev B.L. Waters, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church conducted the funeral and the committal service in Mt. Adnah cemetery, Fulton. Bearers were his two grandsons, Donald and Arthur Loomis, and two nephews, Cameron and Carl Loomis. There were many beautiful flowers. Besides relatives and friends from Palermo and vicinity others from out of town present for the service were Mr and Mrs Joseph Logan, Rochester; Mr and Mrs Frank Gunthorpe, Belgu, Miss Freda Collins, Auburn, Mr and Mrs Geroge Page and daughters, Syracuse, Mr and Mrs Harlan Collins, Mr and Mrs Charles Johnson, Mrs Carl Simmons, Mrs Emma Howard, Fulton and Mr and Mrs GERALD Varley, Watertown.

Elizabeth Loomis

1923 Age 32, wife of Lee Loomis, daughter of Horace Collins.

James W K Loomis

1911 – aged 84

Charles Luderman

1898 – aged 22 years, of pneumonia

Hannah Mace

1882 – 82 years, Volney Center Cemetery, Rev. Stone.
Henry Male

1898 – 50 years, died of paralysis, Coit Cemetery

Marion Mansfield

19 - daughter of Fred Haskins and Gertrude Williams Haskins, wife Nicholas W Mansfield, born 10/20/1896

Nicholas Mansfield

6/5/1940 – aged 75, moved from NYC to Fulton in 1912. married Sarah Wilson. Survived by sons Nicholas Jr. of Palermo, Alex of Fulton, Clifford and Robert of Hannibal, George of Little Utica, daughters Beulah Geibel of Alexandria Bay, Mary Howard of Little Utica, brothers Richard of Peekskill, John of International Falls, MN and Frank of Roosevelt MN, sisters Mary and Lillie Mansfield of Alexandria Bay, Ida Mansfield of Roosevelt, MN

Nichols W Mansfield

6/13/1965 – aged 69, born Peekskill, son of Nicholas and Sarah Wilson Mansfield, wife Marion, Naval veteran of World War II.

Fred Margrey

1915 – buried Phoenix

Dwight Mayne

1977 – aged 77, born Palermo, married Margaret Bower in 1933, son of Frank and Mattie Balmont Mayne, Highway Superintendent 1942 – 1959, Town Supervisor 1960 – 71, Vermillion Cemetery.

Elizabeth McGinley

Mrs. Elizabeth McGinley, 77 of Besaw Road, Town of Palermo, died Jan. 8 at Lee Memorial after a long illness. She was born in Syracuse and resided in Palermo for 43 years. She was a retired school bus driver from Phoenix school district. Surviving are her husband Arthur B, three sons; Benjamin and Ronald of Palermo, Fred of Hannibal, three daughters, Mrs. Charlotte Treasure of Hannibal, Mrs. Bernice Whipple and Mrs. Gail Denery of Palermo, one brother George Doss of Syracuse, two sisters Mrs. Dorothy Myslivecek of Syracuse and Mrs. Edna Gaffey of Fayetteville. Burial at Roosevelt Cemetery.

Oscar McQueen

Oct. 15, 1929 – Oscar McQueen, 88, died suddenly Monday morning at his home in this village (Mexico). Mr. McQueen has been in failing health for the past year but was able to be about and to go down town occasionally. He had complained of not feeling well on Sunday but arose as usual Monday morning and was at the breakfast table with Mrs. McQueen when the end came before medical aid could be summoned.

He was born in the town of Palermo June 14, 1841, the son of Ephraim and Catherine Pierce McQueen and is the last survivor of his family. The greater part of his life was spent in the town of Palermo and in and near the place of his brother, where he was a prosperous farmer and highly respected citizen. In 1917 he moved here where he has since resided.

Mr. McQueen was twice married. His first wife was Harriet Storer Jennings, and two children were born from this union; Fred McQueen of Syracuse and Mrs. B J Sheldon of Roosevelt. His second marriage to Miss Josephine Grant occurred October 23, 1912. He is survived by his widow, son and daughter, 8 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. He was Civil War veteran, having enlisted in the 147th Regiment, Company F and was a member of Sherman Post, Vermillion until it disbanded.

Mr. McQueen retained his mentality and enjoyed life in general possessing a social nature, and those who knew him can testify to his helpfulness.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home, Rev. John Young, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Burial in Sayles Corners Cemetery.

Ellen Mervin

9/8/1916 – aged 76, widow of Smith Mervin, daughter Augusta Bradshaw, one son, buried Palermo Cemetery.

Sheri A Moore

Services for Sheri A Moore, 26 of Palermo who died recently at Westchester County Medical Center after a brief illness were held at Foster Funeral home in Fulton. Burial was in Vermillion cemetery.

Ms. Moore was born in Wilkes Barre, PA and resided in Palermo most of her life. She graduated from Mexico Academy. She is survived by her mother and stepfather, Eleanor and Albert Hartka of Palermo, her father Vance Moore, two brothers Shane of Colosse of Robert of Palermo, three sisters Dorothy Qnn of Colosse, Robin Miller and Motosa Moore, both of Palermo, her maternal grandmother Martha Watkins of PA.

William Mosher

1902 – aged 60 years, died of heart attack, Upsons Corners Cemetery, survived by wife

Mary
Harold I Muckey

1991 – aged 68

Glenn D. Munger

1991 – aged 51, born Palermo

John Murphy

1891 -

James W O'Mara

1933 – born in Hastings June 2,1, 1865, aged 68, son of James O'Mara, burial at Hillside Cemetery, Central Square.

Ephraim E Osler

1936 – 86 years, born Palermo,

Leona Pachoud

1962 – Mrs. Leona Pachoud, 54, was found dead in the cellar of her home in Vermillion by her husband, Arthur W. Pachoud, when he returned from the nearby sawmill at 5:13 p.m. Thursday.

Deputy Sheriff Arthur Revoir said that Mrs. Pachoud had used a double barrel shot gun to end her life. Assistant District Attorney Eugene F. Sullivan of Fulton issued a verdict of suicide. Dr. John Anderson of Mexico pronounced her dead at the scene. The body was released to Miner Funeral Home in Mexico.

Mrs. Pachoud was born in the Town of New Haven on March 2, 1908, the daughter of the late Perry and Cora Ropeter Raymond. She was married to Mr. Pachoud in 1925.

Surviving besides her husband are; two daughters, Mrs. Harold Cota of North Road, Oswego, Miss Virginia Pachoud of Oneida. Two sons: Airman First Class Arthur J. Pachoud of the US Air Force in Colorado Springs, CO and PFC Richard Pachoud of Fort Dix, NJ. Five brothers; Wesley and Willis of Fulton, Benson and Ransford of Palermo, Foster of Mexico, three sisters; Mrs. Inez Rurey of Texas, Mrs. Bertha VanBuren of New Haven, Mrs. Julia Halsey of Volney Center. Rev Charles Austin officiated, burial at Vermillion Cemetery.

Bryon Pangburn

July 2, 1925 – Byron Pangburn, 67, a well known resident of Palermo, died yesterday at his home following a brief illness.

Deceased was a life long resident of Palermo, a member of Happy Thought Grange, Peet's Corners and for several years was treasurer of the organization.

Surviving are his widow Mrs. Nellie Upson Pangburn; one son, Leon Pangburn, New Haven and a brother George Pangburn of Fulton.

Funeral Sunday July 6 at the Peet's Corners Church at 2 p.m. the Rev. Furgiss DeGraw of the M.P. Church Upsons Corners officiating. Burial will be made in the family plot at Upsons Corners.

Henry F Parsons

1897 – died of consumption, was Town Supervisor

Alexander Pelow

1928 – aged 75 years, sudden death at home of granddaughter, Mrs. Edward Miner, found in barn by great grandson Ernest Bidwell, pronounced dead due to heart attack. Survived by granddaughter Mrs. Miner, great granddaughter Mrs. Ernest Bidwell, stepdaughter Mrs. Fred Pelow of Bernards Bay. Buried at Roosevelt Cemetery.

Losepha Perkins

Aged 81, or the Red Schoolhouse Road, born in Bellview, Canada, was a retired registered nurse. Employed by Methodist Episcopal Hospital in Brooklyn, member of State Street Methodist Church in Fulton, survived by sister Bernice West of Fulton, brother in law Floyd West of Fulton, and Ernest Larrabee of Palermo. Burial at Mt. Adnah.

Leman Phelps

1889 – aged 58, heart disease

Frank E Phillips

Mexico, Dec 26, 1933 – Frank E. Phillips, 62, of Palermo died Wednesday evening in Crouse-Irving Hospital, Syracuse, where he had been a patient a few days.

Mr. Phillips was born Feb. 15, 1870 in West Monroe, the son of Harriet Woodruff Phillips and the late Irving Phillips and Harriet Woodruff. He had resided in Palermo many years and was a member of the Happy Thought Grange, 1242.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Bowen Phillips, three daughters, Mrs. Burk Rupracht, Mrs. Glen Avery and Miss Genevieve Phillips; two brothers, Merritt of West Monroe and Arthur of Palermo; one sister, Mrs Frank Bracken, Palermo, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at the home Saturday with the Rev. Scharge of Pennellville, retired Methodist clergy and burial in Roosevelt Cemetery.

John H Phillips

1951 – aged 91, born Palermo

Harold A Peterson

1963 – at Palermo, born in 1908 at Lodi, NY

Anna Jane Pitcher

1976 – aged 92, born Palermo, buried North Volney Cemetery.

Margaret Pitcher

ONE HUNDRED YEARS

OLD

Phoenix, Feb. 16 – Mrs. Margaret Pitcher, the oldest resident of Oswego County, died at the home of her son Otis Pitcher, in Fulton last night. Mrs. Pitcher was born in Lafayette Square, Madison County November 17, 1808 and after living there a few years moved to the Volney, Oswego county where she had lived most of her life. Her maiden name was Margaret Blair. She married Peter Pitcher in 1828 and from that union there are three living children, Otis Pitcher, age 76 of this village, James Pitcher aged 70 and Mrs Sophie Coe, age 68 of Fulton. Mrs. Pitcher had 32 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and 5 great great grandchildren.

Donna Lee Pluff

1947 – aged 6, daughter of Leah and Don Pluff, born Palermo, in bus accident.

Charles Pollock

1945 – aged 73 years, survived by wife Kathryn, son of Ira and Mary Jane Guile Pollock, buried at Mt. Adnah

Perry Raymond

1956 – Perry Raymond, 81 of Vermillion, died Thursday morning at the home of his son, Wesley Raymond, 363 S sixth St, following a brief illness.

Mr. Raymond was born Oct. 20, 1875 in the town of Palermo. He had resided in his present home in Vermillion 50 years and until retiring had engaged in farming. He was a member of the Vermillion Methodist church and the Palermo Grange.

Mr. Raymond married Cora Etta Ropeters in December 1897. Mrs. Raymond later died in 1934 and Mr. Raymond later married Hazel Johnson, who survives.

Other survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Edward (Bertha) VanBuren of New Haven, Mrs. Byron (Inez) Rurey of Texas, Mrs. Arthur (Leona) Pachoud of Vermillion and Mrs. Guy (Julia) Halacy of Volney Center; five sons, Wesley and Willis of Fulton, Ransford and Benson of Palermo and Foster of New Haven; 23 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren, 1 great great grandchild. Services will be held at the Ransford Raymond home in Palermo.

Fred H Rice

1979 – aged 45 years, born in Syracuse, operated a dairy farm for 17 years in Palermo, died of diabetes complications, survived by wife Roberta McIntyre Rice, sons James, John of Palermo and Thomas of Scottville. Burial at Pine Plains Cemetery, Cicero

J W Rigley

1912 – aged 56, born Palermo, died of heart attack.

Lyman C Robinson

1917 – aged 73 years, buried Upsons Corners

L. Salsbury

Aug. 25, 1930 - The funeral services of the late L. Salsbury were held from his late home in Palermo on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Lord officiating. He is survived by two sons, John of Volney and Virgil of Auburn; also two daughters, Mrs. Edith Cole of Cicero and Mrs. Lulu Coville of Palermo and several grandchildren.

Ray Salsbury

1897 – aged 20 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs. Leonard Salsbury.

Paul Schneible

Paul J. Schneible, who formerly operated a dairy farm just east of Oswego, died at his home in Palermo of a self inflicted bullet wound to the head. He was the son of Paul Schneible of Rome, NY. He is survived by his wife Clara Czirr Schneible of Palermo, three daughters Miss Irene Schneible of Palermo, Mrs. Ralph E Shafer of Oswego and Mrs. Walter Bardeschewski of Oswego, one son, Paul A of Oswego, two brothers Frank of Oswego and William of Paterson, NJ and one sister Mrs. Rose Koesters of Kenmore.

Fred Scudder

Mar. 12, 1943 - Fred Scudder, 82, widely known Palermo farmer, died suddenly at his home last night.

He had not been complaining of illness and had worked on his farm all day yesterday. He died early in the evening.

More than 50 years a member of Granite Grange of Palermo, he had farmed nearly his entire life in this area. He and his wife would have observed their 63rd wedding anniversary April 14th.

Besides his widow, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Fern Brook of Syracuse; two sons, Leon, Mexico and Harry, Fulton, seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

The funeral will be Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the home, the Rev Allan Dodge of the Mexico Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Adnah Cemetery.

Harry Scudder

1962 – survived by wife Marion, daughter Mrs. Floyd Fox of Fulton, sons Robert of Vestal and Allen of Volney

Leander Scudder

3/14/1905 – 81 years, born Palermo, son of Leander and Marian Scudder, married Maria Tinker 2/6/1851. Brother Ashabel Scudder of Palermo, children Fred and Ella Wallace. Buried Palermo Center, Rev. C J Taft officiating

Emma Ann Seaton

Died April 4th, year unknown, widow of George Seaton, daughter Mrs. Harry Lathrop, sons James and Richard of Fulton, Glenn of Palermo, brother Guy Pitcher of Palermo, buried Mt. Adnah.

Alice A Sherman

1948 – aged 91 years, buried at North Volney Cemetery, widow of Caswell Sherman, daughter of Spencer Holbrook

Joseph Simko, Sr.

1978 – Joseph Simko, Sr., 60 of Fulton died at Crouse-Irving Memorial Hospital in Syracuse after a brief illness.
Born in Calument, PA, he resided in this area the past 30 years. He was a former resident of Greensburg, PA. He operated the Driveway Inn on Route 3 for the past 20 years. An Army veteran of World War II, he was a communicant of Holy Family Church. Surviving are his wife, Wilma; two sons, Joseph Jr and Robert of Fulton; four grandchildren; several brothers and sisters in PA and New York, nieces and nephews. Services from Young and Sons Funeral Home, burial in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Charles Sisson

d. 1925

Michael J Smeidy

1977 – Michael J Smeidy, 15, Liverpool, died at Upstated Medical Center from injuries received in an auto accident. He was a native of Fulton but had resided in Liverpool the last three years. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Nancy Blasczienski Smiedy, a sister Babette, his maternal grandfather Arthur Waldron of Mexico, paternal grandmother Mrs. Betty Crimmins, of Oswego. Burial was in Palermo Center Cemetery.

Carrie Smith

1942 – aged 79 years, wife of Charles D. Smith, daughter of John and Elizabeth Carl. Survived by three sons: Seymour and Leon of Palermo, Carl of Fulton. Brothers Charles Carl of Syracuse, William of West Virginia and John of Utica. Sister Lydia Belknop of Brewerton. Burial at Upsons Corners.

Mary J Smith

1928 – born Palermo, daughter of Oliver and Lovina Jennings, buried Clifford Cemetery.

Seymour Smith

1898 – aged 69 years, buried Upsons Corners

George F Snow

1897 – son of Rev. H F Snow

George O Snyder

Nov. 1941 – Died suddenly Nov. 15th while working in a woodlot, George O Snyder, aged 52 years. He is survived by a wife, a daughter, Mrs. Maxwell Smith of DeRuyter, two grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. A E Hannum of Syracuse and Mrs. Byron House of Cato and a brother Clifford Snyder of Fulton.

Funeral services were held from the home on Tuesday, Rev. Harold Wright MacGilvay officiating. Interment in Mt. Adnah.

The deceased was born in Palermo on Christmas Day 1889, son of Erwin and Adelle Snyder. In 1914 he married Gladys Wrigley of Fulton. He operated the Fairman store on West Broadway for 14 years. He later lived in New Berlin and DeRuyter but moved to Palermo three years ago. While in Palermo he did some farming and also worked for the Hunter Arms Company in Fulton.

Ambrose Sutton

1915 – Ambrose Sutton, 85, died at his home in Phoenix after an illness that lasted nearly a year.

Mr and Mrs Sutton were former residents of Palermo where they were engaged in the business of farming. The failing health of Mr. Sutton induced them to remove from the Palermo farm to Phoenix, which occurred about a year ago. Mr. Sutton is survived by his wife and one adopted son, Charles of Syracuse.

The funeral will be at the family home in Phoenix and the Baptist church at Gilberts Mills.

Milton Switts

1923- burial at Upsons Corners

Norman Thayer

1883 – aged 49, died of typhoid pneumonia

Harriet Tinker

1901 – born in Palermo, brother George of Palermo, sister Mrs. Leander Scudder

Mrs. Austin Tooley

1895 – 82 years, of dropsy, survived by son George

George M Tooley

1904 - aged 87

Louella Tooley

1945 – aged 79 years, born in Palermo, survived by daughters Mrs. Jesse Yardley of Fulton, Mabel Allen of Palermo and Mrs Friend Sikes of Volney, son Erwin Tooley. She was the daughter of Sylvester Wright, burial at Clifford Cemetery.

Minnie Lois Tooley

Minnie Lois Tooley died yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lynn H (Lulu) Finch, Franklin.

She was born June 5, 1892 in New York State, daughter of Minott F and Maude B Gilman Tooley. She had been a resident of Mexico for many years.

She was a retired teacher from the Mexico Academy and Central School system. She served as principal of the Palermo school for 20 years and taught physical education in the third supervisory district of Suffolk County, L.I. She also taught mathematics for several years in the Fulton Junior High School.

She was a member of the Mexico Methodist Church, Granite Grange of Palermo, State Retired Teachers Association, Silas Town Chapter DAR.

Surviving besides Mrs. Finch are another sister, Mrs. Leland (Iva) Druce, Mexico and four nephews.

Funeral services will be on Thursday from the Gibbs Funeral Home, Mexico. Burial will be in Mount Adnah Cemetery, Fulton.

Mrs. George Tooley

1882 – 60 years, died of paralysis, buried in Dentons Corners Cemetery (Clifford)

Gurden D Trimble

Gurden D Trimble, 69, supervisor from the town of Palermo for the past several years, died suddenly at his home Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mr. Trimble was born in the town of Scriba, being the son of Mr and Mrs David H Trimble. He moved to Palermo early in life and was engaged with his father in the mill business. Mr. Trimble was town clerk for more than 30 years and was chosen supervisor nearly seven years ago, succeeding Lee C Loomis. Surviving are two sons, Fred and Glenn Trimble of Palermo, one sister Mrs Minnie Brown, Fulton and two grandchildren, Frances and Evelyn Trimble. Burial in Mt. Adnah Cemetery.

Rose Jennings Trimble

Mrs. Trimble died at the home of her son, Leon Gilman, July 6th, aged 85. she had been feeble for a long time, her fatal illness being of a few days duration.

Mrs. Trimble was a member of Granite Grange, Pomona Grange, the Home Bureau. Her first husband was Levi Gilman, a war veteran. She was also the widow of David H Trimble. She is survived by one son, Leon Gilman, son-in-law Minot Tooley, one brother Gilbert Jennings, three Minnie Tooley, Mrs. Lynn Finch and Mrs. Leland Druce. Burial was in Palermo Center Cemetery.

Leray Ure

1919 – age 83

Joseph E Vincent

1912 – Joseph E Vincent, age 69 years, died of paralysis at his home in Palermo. He was born in Scriba and was a farmer the most of his life. He was also associated with the late D H Trimble for several years in the meat business. Mr. Vincent married Sarah Hall, who died in 1910. He was married in 1911 to Mrs. Mary Hill, who survives him. His children are: Mrs Issac Pool of Palermo, Edward L Vincent and Charles William Vincent, both of South Scriba, Max Vincent of PA and Clarence A Vincent. Also one brother Clarence of Chicago, IL.

Winfield S Wallace

1940 – 86 years, survived by daughter Mrs. Fred Bradford, brothers Willard of Norwich and Grant of Mexico. Burial from Peets' Corners Methodist Church. Was a veterinarian

William P Wallace

1917 – died at the home of his son William G Wallace after a lingering illness. Mr. Wallace was 91 and had been a lifelong resident of Palermo. He was a well known and highly respected farmer and at the time of his death was probably one of the oldest men in Palermo. He was a member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Fulton and was actively prominent in the affairs of that congregation. He is survived by William P Wallace of Fulton, Willard M Wallace of Palermo, Dr. W S Wallace of Phoenix, and William G Wallace of Fulton.

Caroline A Wilcox

1912 – aged 72 years, wife of Harvey

Helen E. Wilcox

1899 – Helen E., wife of Nathan J. Wilcox, died suddenly at residence south of Arthur on Monday, Dec. 9th. Dr. J. W. Huntington of Mexico was called to the home. He pronounced it apoplexy. She was entirely paralyzed and remained in that condition until death relieved her.

Mrs. Wilcox was the daughter of John and Caroline Chapeadle and was born April 22, 1963 where she spent her early life. After her marriage she moved to Palermo where her husband owned a cooper s shop. About twenty years ago they removed to his town. One son and her husband survive her.

Sally Jennings Whitmore

1892 – aged 82, widow of Harvey Whitmore, buried at Palermo Center

B R Williams

1891 – 60 years, lived Roosevelt area, belonged to Hiram Lodge, Fulton, buried Palermo Center Cemetery.

August Winks

1/29/1920 – age 27 of pneumonia, survived by his father, sisters Mrs. Leon Miner, Mrs. Clinton Sanders of Fulton, Mrs. Joseph Skilinski, Emma, Ethel and Rose Winks of Palermo. Burial at Roosevelt Cemetery.

Ida Winks

1936 – aged 65, died following an operation, buried Upsons Corners, survived by son John (Winks Dance Hall)

Julia Wood

1922 – aged 63, born in Palermo, wife of Burdette, daughter Mrs. Jessie A Gardner of Fulton, brothers John Hollenbeck of Palermo, Willis Hollenbeck of Phoenix, buried Mt. Adnah.

Mary Wood

Nov. 14, 1914 – died at her home in Palermo, Nov. 1st, Mary Wood, wife of Amos Wood, aged 79 years. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. A M Childs of New York, Mrs. Ella Sheldon of Fulton and Mrs. James Ure of Palermo, and three sons, Burdette Wood and Charles Wood of Fulton, and Emmett Wood of Franklin, Delaware county.

The deceased was taken ill while on a visit to her son, Emmett and family and insisted on being taken to her home in Palermo, where she passed away. She has resided in the same house for 76 years, being taken there when a child of three years. It was here that she married Mr. Wood and reared her family.

Bert Wright

1921 –

Herbert A Wright

1. – b. Palermo

7/21/1869, married Ida McDougall, member of IOOF, survived by son, parents Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Wright, sister Mrs. Oscar Tooley of Clifford, one brother Burt Wright of Palermo, buried at South Scriba Cemetery.

Sylvester Wright

1922 – born 1831 in Volney, married Almira Allen 6/11/1862, buried Clifford Cemetery.

Sarah A Young

1913 – aged 63, born in Palermo, buried at Mt. Adnah